

RECLAMATION AWARDS

Luminant

Luminant has been recognized with nearly 90 awards for mining and reclamation excellence. Here are just a few.

Wildlife abounds on Luminant's restored land.

- May 2012 Award of Merit, Texas Historical Commission, for work in preserving Texas cultural and historical resources
- October 2009 Director's Award, Office of Surface Mining, for the Luminant Environmental Research Program's role in advancing the science of land reclamation
- September 2008 Director's Award, Office of Surface Mining, for sound science and dedication to stewardship in the company's reforestation program
- March 2008 Texas Reclamation Award, Railroad Commission of Texas, for the company's reforestation program
- September 2006 Director's Award, Office of Surface Mining, for outstanding, innovative mining reclamation practices for the Oak Hill Mine, a part of the Martin Lake Mine
- April 2006 E. Mott Davis Award, Council of Texas Archeologists, for excellence in public outreach by developing educational museum exhibits using materials from 20 years of cultural resource investigations at company mines

- February 2006 Texas Reclamation Award, Railroad Commission of Texas, for reclamation innovation at the Oak Hill Mine, a part of the Martin Lake Mine
- March 2005 Texas Reclamation Award, Railroad Commission of Texas, for reclamation success at the Big Brown Mine
- September 2004 National Award, Office of Surface Mining, for wetlands at the Martin Lake Mine
- May 2004 Lone Star Land Steward Award, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, for reclamation at the Monticello Mine
- February 2004 Texas Reclamation Award, Railroad Commission of Texas, for wetlands at the Martin Lake Mine
- October 2003 National Award, Office of Surface Mining, for fish and wildlife habitat land use development at the Monticello Mine
- February 2003 Texas Reclamation Award, Railroad Commission of Texas, for restoring woodland resources
- March 2002 National Mine Reclamation Award, Interstate Mining Compact Commission, for fish and wildlife habitat land use development at the Monticello Mine
- March 2002 Texas Reclamation Award, Railroad Commission of Texas, for fish and wildlife habitat land use development at the Monticello Mine

Luminant's reclamation program has created or enhanced 5,100 acres of water features.

November 2001 National Award, Office of Surface Mining, for a pond and forested wetlands reclamation project at the Monticello Mine

January 2001 Texas Reclamation Award, Railroad Commission of Texas, for developing highly acclaimed wetlands

October 2000 National Award, Office of Surface Mining, for the company's reforestation efforts

January 2000 Texas Reclamation Award, Railroad Commission of Texas, for a pond and forested wetlands reclamation project at the Monticello Mine

October 1999 Director's Award, Office of Surface Mining, for exemplary prime farmland reclamation at the Monticello and Big Brown mines

October 1998 Excellence in Surface Mining, Office of Surface Mining, for the Prairie Creek restoration partnership at the Big Brown Mine

August 1997 National Reclamation Award, Interstate Mining Compact Commission, for the Rock Creek reclamation project at the Thermo Mine, a part of the Monticello Mine

July 1997 Texas Reclamation Award, Railroad Commission of Texas, for the Rock Creek reclamation project at the Thermo Mine, a part of the Monticello Mine

July 1996 Texas Reclamation Award, Railroad Commission of Texas, for the economic benefits of creating prime farmland soils by reclamation of a surface mine at the Big Brown Mine

December 1995 Award, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, for outstanding wildlife management at the Monticello Mine

July 1995 Texas Reclamation Award, Railroad Commission of Texas, for postmine forestland management and planning for the future at the Martin Lake Mine

May 1995 Texas Award, Texas Historical Commission, for significant achievement concerning the preservation of Texas history

December 1994 Corporate Conservation Leadership Award, Nature Conservancy of Texas and Greater Dallas Chamber, for reclamation and environmental reforestation program

May 1990 Excellence in Surface Mining and Reclamation Award, Office of Surface Mining, for the successful reclamation of 439 acres at the Monticello Mine

August 1989 Coal Mining Reclamation Award, Texas Railroad Commission, for the successful reclamation of 439 acres at the Monticello Mine

June 1989 Director's Award (first such award), Office of Surface Mining, for exemplary commitment to the environment in surface coal-mining reclamation

January 1989 Group Achievement Award, The Wildlife Society, for leadership in environmental protection associated with surface mining and promoting graduate education in reclamation of mined lands

September 1987 Railroad Commission of Texas Award for reclamation of 632 acres at the Big Brown Mine

Luminant's post-mine reclamation provides quality wildlife habitat.

